ENGLISH - I

CLASS – IV Poem : On the bridge

Complete these sentences. (Page-13)

- 1. Some of the things the speaker wishes to see are a little fish, spider, a water rat and pretty circles in the water.
- 2. The speaker imagines that the flower boat will be in the great wide sea the next day.
- 3. The pretty circles are actually ripples caused by a stone throwm into the water.

Complete these sentences with the correct forms of words from the poem.

- 1. Neera threw a pebble into the mud.
- 2. The boys sat in the shade of the tree.
- 3. The lamps slowly floated away in the river.
- 4. The ship was sailing in the middle of the ocean.

Question-Answer

Q.1 Do you think the speaker enjoys standing on the bridge? Use words or lines from rhe poem to say why you think so.

Ans. The speaker seemed to enjoy standing on the bridge and watching things. She used the word 'wish' twice, which tells us that she wanted to see various things standing there. The speaker also said, "I think I'll get some stones to throw, and watch the pretty circles show." This showed that she enjoyed the view from the bridge.

Q.2 How old do you think the speaker might be? What makes you think so?

Ans. The speaker might be eight to ten years of age, because she was excited about standing on a bridge and watching various insects and animals, and doing things—such as throwing stones and sailing flowers-boats.
