Lesson-5-Before The Match

Understanding the Text.

A. Read these sentences. Mark whether they are true or not true. If a sentence is not true, write the correct sentence in your notebook. (Page no-51)

1.Swami was the best bowler on the MCC team.

Ans. True.

2.Swami was not attending cricket practice regularly.

Ans. True.

3.Swami asked the Head Master to let him attend cricket practice.

Ans. Not true. He pretended to be ill to escape from drill practice.

4.Swami was feeling ill and had delirium.

Ans. Not true.Swami only pretended to be ill and have delirium.

5.The doctor asked Swami not to attend Drill for a week.

Ans. Not true. The doctor declared him to be in pink of health and told him he would attend his drill if he wanted to get rid of delirium.

Use must/mustn't or should/shouldn't to write a sentence in reply to the first one. Use the words in brackets. (Page no - 53)

1.She must see a doctor.

2.You should not break them.

3.You must carry your passport, then.

4.We should choose our books quickly. We will be asked to leave soon.

5.It's very simple. He should cross the street and turn right.

6.You shouldn't be so careless with your things.

Match the two halves of the sentences on the next page. Choose the correct words from the box to complete them. Write the complete sentences in your notebook. (Page no 53 and 54)

1.Hari was selected for the quiz contest and was quite excited about participating in it.

2.We all did well in the exams. Our teacher was very pleased with our performance.

3.Ravi did not remember the directions to Minu's house and was very confused about which route to take.

4.When the lights went off, Nitin was so scared that he would not even get out of his bed.

5.Ratan did not expect to see us on his birthday and was surprised when we arrived with gifts and flowers for him.

6.We had practised for the football tournament for months and were stunned when we lost our very first match.

B. Read these lines from the text and answer the questions. (Page no- 52)

Q. 1. There was only one player who caused him the deepest anxiety day and night.

a. Who caused whom 'the deepest anxiety'?

Ans.Swaminathan, the tate of MCC team caused the deepest anxiety to Rajam.

b. Why was this so?

Ans.This was so because he did not come for the practice and only fourteen days were left for cricket match.

Q. 2. Just seven days before the match, Swaminathan realised that his evenings were more precious than ever.

a. Which is the match referred to here?

Ans. The match between Young Men's Union and the Malgudi Cricket Club was referred there.

b. Why were the evenings so precious?

Ans. The evenings were more precious than ever for Swaminathan because only seven days were left for the match.

Q. 3. But contrary to the custom, he had not taken off his coat and cap.

a. Why did Swami not take off his coat and cap?

Ans. Swami didn't take off his coat and cap because he wanted to pretend to be ill in front of the Drill master and escape the evening drill.

b. What happened soon after?

Ans. Soon after this, the Drill master stopped before him, looked him up and down and passed on muttering 'you won't get leave' and ordered him to take off coat and cap.

Q. 4. I can't give you a certificate.

a. Why did the speaker refuse to give Swami a certificate? What did he offer to do instead?

Ans. The speaker refused to give Swami a certificate because giving a fake certificate of illness is illegal and he would be prosecuted for that. Instead, he offered to talk to his headmaster to let him off for the practice.

b. How did Swami respond to the offer?

Ans. Swami readily accepted the offer and felt obliged.
