CHAPTER :-23
" WHY DEMOCRACY ? "

---

IV. Answer the following questions:

Q1. What do you mean by democracy?

Ans. The word ' democracy ' come from two Greek words, which together mean 'people's rule' . A democracy is a government that involves all the citizens in sharing power.

Q2. How was the idea of rule of law developed?

Ans. The Glorious Revolution (1688) laid the foundation of the first democratic principle of the Rule of law. Earlier it was believed that the king's wishes were the law .The people protested against this principle and by dethroning their king ( King James II of England ) in 1688 and by passing the Bill of Rights they established the idea that the country should be ruled by laws passed by the people or the Parliament and not by the whims of an individual.

Q3. What is the importance of right to vote?

Ans. The importance of right to vote is that ,It gives you political equality because after a long struggle the right to vote which is called franchise or suffrage, was slowly and steadily extended to all .But still there was a flaw .The franchise or right to vote was not extended to women.The struggle for this continued and ultimately the women also got the right to vote like men. When the right to vote is given to every adult in a country ,it is called Universal adult franchise.

Q4. What is a dictatorial form of government?

Ans. Dictatorial form of government. It can also be called a military dictatorship. In such type of government ordinary citizen have no say in the decision making process. Instead, the head has absolute power in the country. This can sometimes lead to decision being made against the wishes of the majority.

Q5. How is accommodation of differences ensured in a democracy?

Ans. Accommodation of differences - In a democracy nothing is imposed on the people . The people or their representative can express their differences freely. There are opposition party/ parties in the legislature which oppose or expose the government at every point. It is the spirit of give and take and the spirit of accommodation which makes it popular in the modern world.

Q6. Abraham Lincoln defined democracy as 'the government of the people ,by the people and for the people.' Discuss the significance of the statement in the context of India.

Ans. Democracy is a government which depends on the consent of the governed ,i.e.,the people. The people are all Supreme and sovereign and nobody is above them .Through the medium of election they can change any government they like. In the context of India people can change so many government like sometime Congress lose the election ,or in sometime in Rajasthan state Congress won the election.

V. Give reasons why we see that:

1. Democracy is becoming popular in the contemporary world.

Ans. Because in a democracy nothing is imposed on the people people or their representative can express their differences freely.

2. The first democracy which was established was not perfect.

Ans. Because only a small number of money that people would cast their vote in the election.

3. In a democracy there is active participation by the citizen.

Ans. Because In a democracy every citizen can stand as a candidate for any post he can become a Minister even Prime Minister or president if he can master majority.
