EMMANUEL MISSION SR SEC SCHOOL, BEAWAR
ENGLISH
CLASS – VIII
Unit – 1

---

Revision Assessment

A. Answer these questions.

1. Why was Nathu, the sweeper-boy, annoyed?
2. How did news about the bank change from Mrs Prakash's telling to Mrs Bhushan's?
3. "Everyone seems to have gone mad!"
  - a. Who said these words and why?
  - b. According to you, what incident in the story reflected the madness of the town at its peak?
4. In your opinion, who was truly responsible for 'breaking' the bank? Was it Nathu, Sitaram, the bank clerk, Seth Govind Ram or the town? Give reason for your answer.
5. How did the barber and his customer react to the news about the bank? What words in para 17 tell you that the customer was more worried about his money than his injury?

B. Appreciating the Text

1. Do we- the readers-know something about the collapse of the bank that Nathu or Sitaram do not? How do we know this? How do you think this adds humour to the text?
2. The Boy Who Broke the Bank is the story of a rumour that turned a town upside down. The writer describes the behaviour of the town's residents during this 'crisis' and makes some interesting remarks on human nature.

C. Grammar and Usage

1. On Monday, just as I am trying to wind down after a long day at work.....
2. "Yes, this is me," I was replying, " This is Susan. I need to talk to you right now,".....
3. "I am not hearing from you for over a month. Is everything all right?".....
4. You see, I rode down a deserted lane this afternoon when I saw a cat and its kittens
